SACERDOTES DE DIOS Y DE CRISTO Francisco Acedo Fernández, 2022-01-10 La Iglesia Católica se ha propuesto la SINODALIDAD como uno de los objetivos fundamentales de comunión para todos los cristianos. Para ello el Papa Francisco ha convocado en 2021 un Sínodo de obispos que reciba propuestas e ideas de todo el orbe cristiano, para que examinadas a la luz del Espíritu Santo sepan proyectar una Iglesia más firme y cohesionada entre todos sus miembros, que manifieste una imagen más plena del amor que Jesucristo mandó practicar, pero que actualmente vemos separada en multitud de clases e ideologías que no dudan en enfrentarse entre sí, causando escándalo y división a la Iglesia y el mundo en general. Como solución a estos conflictos, el autor recupera una idea recibida en el Concilio Vaticano II y cuya ejecución fue aparcada por miedo a resultar escandalosa, siendo esta una de las principales causas de una clara disociación de funciones que aboca a los distintos estados de la Iglesia a labores estrictamente religiosas o seculares, sin concederse la más mínima permeabilidad entre ellos, en un triste ejercicio de falta de comunión. El autor propone difundir a todos los cristianos la noción de SACERDOCIO COMÚN, que como sacerdotes iguala por el Bautismo a todos los cristianos ante Dios, desde su posibilidad de comunicarse espiritualmente con Cristo y sus criaturas por el amor, e interceder eficazmente por todos los hombres y mujeres de esta tierra, independientemente del sacerdocio instituido por Cristo de administración de los sacramentos. Llamados a la santidad por su capacidad de integrar oración y caridad, amor a Dios y al prójimo, dentro de su proyecto de santidad como llamada de Cristo al corazón de cada uno, y que como tal nadie debería subestimar nunca más.

The Oxford Handbook of Borderlands of the Iberian World Danna A. Levin Rojo, Cynthia Radding, 2019-11-06 This collaborative multi-authored volume integrates interdisciplinary approaches to ethnic, imperial, and national borderlands in the Iberian World (16th to early 19th centuries). It illustrates the historical processes that produced borderlands in the Americas and connected them to global circuits of exchange and migration in the early modern world. The book offers a balanced state-of-the-art educational tool representing innovative research for teaching and scholarship. Its geographical scope encompasses imperial borderlands in what today is northern Mexico and southern United States; the greater Caribbean basin, including cross-imperial borderlands among the island archipelagos and Central America; the greater Paraguayan river basin, including the Gran Chaco, lowland Brazil, Paraguay, and Bolivia; the Amazonian borderlands; the grasslands and steppes of southern Argentina and Chile; and Iberian trade and religious networks connecting the Americas to Africa and Asia. The volume is structured around the following broad themes: environmental change and humanly crafted landscapes; the role of indigenous allies in the Spanish and Portuguese military expeditions; negotiations of power across imperial lines and indigenous chiefdoms; the parallel development of subsistence and commercial economies across terrestrial and maritime trade routes; labor and the corridors of forced and free migration that led to changing social and ethnic identities; histories of science and cartography; Christian missions, music, and visual arts; gender and sexuality, emphasizing distinct roles and experiences documented for men and women in the borderlands. While centered in the colonial era, it is framed by pre-contact Mesoamerican borderlands and nineteenth-century national developments for those regions where the continuity of inter-ethnic relations and economic networks between the colonial and national periods is particularly salient, like the central Andes, lowland Bolivia, central Brazil, and the Mapuche/Pehuenche captaincies in South America. All the contributors are highly recognized scholars, representing different disciplines and academic traditions in North America, Latin America and Europe.
