La lengua española y los medios de comunicación Luis Cortés Bargalló,1998-01-01 La historia de la preparación del Congreso de Zacatecas es breve e intensa. Se inició a comienzos del decenio de los noventa con la celebración del Congreso de la Lengua Española, en Sevilla, en 1992, con motivo de los actos de clausura de la Exposición Universal. Este Congreso solicitó que México fuera sede del Primer Congreso Internacional de la Lengua Española. Para participar en la inauguración fueron invitados los tres premios Nobel de Literatura de habla española, Gabriel García Márquez, Camilo José Cela y Octavio Paz. Este Congreso dispuso la organización de tres mesas redondas: Las academias de la lengua y los medios de comunicación; La dimensión internacional de la lengua española y Los medios de comunicación y el futuro de la lengua española.

El lenguaje en México José G. Moreno de Alba,1999-01-01 Desde la época de la conquista, las relaciones entre el Estado y los pueblos indígenas han sido un problema central para el gobierno. Durante la época colonial, las leyes de Indias pretendieron una cierta autonomía de las comunidades indígenas tradicionales. En el siglo XIX, el proyecto liberal planteó la alternativa entre la aceptación de aquel estatuto comunal indígena y la disolución de las comunidades. Durante la Revolución, el vasconcelismo se orientó hacia la postergación y paulatino acabamiento de las lenguas y costumbres tradicionales, adoptando la lengua española como oficial. Aunque en el periodo cardenista hubo un repunte del respeto de los pueblos indios, el Instituto Nacional Indigenista acabó promoviendo el rechazo del régimen autonómico; la situación de los pueblos indígenas se agravó y acabó determinando el estallido en Chiapas. Este libro reconsidera el problema y reorienta el debate en la dirección del respeto a los derechos indios y a la aceptación de un México multinacional.

No se nos puede

ocultar el gran interés que tiene este tipo de trabajos de investigación para el desarrollo de la lengua española.

Fraseología, Diatopía y Traducción / Phraseology, Diatopic Variation and Translation Pedro Mogorrón Huerta, Antonio Albaladejo-Martínez, 2018-11-15 In all languages, humans frequently use linguistic combinations called phraseological units (PUs) in communicative acts. These PUs are characterized by their institutionalized fixation and, in many cases, by their opacity. Traditionally, the work on phraseology has placed the emphasis on the total fixing of components and structures of verbal expressions. Variation in PUs is currently an uncontested fact and has been extensively studied and analyzed. In addition, in the case of languages like Spanish, English, French, spoken in many countries, new creations or diatopic variants arise. While these diatopic expressions have been collected or analyzed in their territory of influence, no comprehensive collection showing all the expressions and contrastive analysis to observe the similarities and differences between these diatopic creations with all their idiosyncratic and cultural references have been made so far. The content of this volume deals with numerous linguistic, lexicographic and translational problems in the context of language variation in general, as well as specifically related to diatopic variation. The aim is to make progress in these challenging and highly interesting areas which still pose many comprehension and translation problems.

Manual of Standardization in the Romance Languages Franz Lebsanft,Felix Tacke,2020-01-20 Language standardization is an ongoing process based on the notions of linguistic correctness and models. This manual contains thirty-six chapters that deal with the theories of linguistic norms and give a comprehensive up-to-date description and analysis of the standardization processes in the Romance languages. The first section presents the essential approaches to the concept of linguistic norm ranging from antiquity to the present, and includes individual chapters on the notion of linguistic norms and correctness in classical grammar and rhetoric, in the Prague School, in the linguistic theory of Eugenio Coseriu, in sociolinguistics as well as in pragmatics, cognitive and discourse linguistics. The second section focuses on the application of these notions with respect to the Romance languages. It examines in detail the normative grammar and the normative dictionary as the reference tools for language codification and modernization of those languages that have a long and well-established written tradition, i.e. Romanian, Italian, French, Catalan, Spanish, and Portuguese. Furthermore, the volume offers a discussion of the key issues regarding the standardization of the 'minor' Romance languages as well as Creoles.
