Desarrollo rural territorial, economía campesina y caminos solidarios Corredor Jiménez, Carlos Enrique, Campo Zambrano, Daniel Sneyder, Mera Paz, Yulieth Karina, Sánchez Mosquera, María Isabel, Peña Forero, Enrique, 2017-07-21 En la actualidad se ha logrado identificar la necesidad de pensar el espacio como una construcción sociocultural y económica, en donde intervienen los actores locales en el proceso para su propio bienestar, permitiendo que la producción rural sea desplegada más allá de la individualidad de la finca y se integre a procesos locales, regionales, nacionales y globales. Es así como la innovación social en la ruralidad se entiende en sentidos ambientales, económicos y culturales de acuerdo a la multifuncionalidad del territorio.

A look at development ,

Campeños de los Andes Caucaños Hernando Uribe Castro, Luis Hernando Hidalgo Gutierrez, 2021-04-01 Este libro busca describir y explicar la transformación social que enfrenta una comunidad rural campesina que habita en el sector El Roble (vereda Barro Blanco), del municipio de Timbío en el departamento del Cauca en Colombia. En estas sociedades rurales vienen sucediendo cambios en los estilos de vida campesina, en la relación con la tierra que traspasan las dimensiones del diario vivir: cambios generacionales; innovación productiva; desaparición de los conocimientos tradicionales e imposición de otros nuevos; modernización, tecnologías y nuevas infraestructuras; así como los efectos de la migración de los jóvenes (especialmente las mujeres), entre otros.

The Neoliberal Regime in the Agri-Food Sector Steven A. Wolf, Alessandro Bonanno, 2013-12-04 For the last three decades, the Neoliberal regime, emphasising economic growth through deregulation, market integration, expansion of the private sector, and contraction of the welfare state has shaped production and consumption processes in agriculture and food. These institutional arrangements emerged from and advanced academic and popular beliefs about the virtues of private, market-based coordination relative to public, state-based problem solving. This book presents an informed, constructive dialogue around the thesis that the Neoliberal mode of governance has reached some institutional and material limits. Is Neoliberalism exhausted? How should we understand crisis applied to Neoliberalism? What are the opportunities and risks linked to the construction of alternatives? The book advances a critical evaluation of the evidence supporting claims of rupture of, or incursions into, the Neoliberal model. It also analyzes pragmatic responses to these critiques including policy initiatives, social mobilization and experimentation at various scales and points of entry. The book surveys and synthesizes a range of sociological frames designed to grapple with the concepts of regimes, systemic crisis and transitions. Contributions include historical analysis, comparative analysis and case studies of food and agriculture from around the globe. These highlight particular aspects of crisis and responses, including the potential for continued resilience, a neo-productivist return, as well as the emergence and scaling up of alternative models.

The Neoliberal Diet Gerardo Otero, 2018-10-03 This “remarkable, comprehensive” study of neoliberal agribusiness and the obesity epidemic “is critical reading for food studies scholars” (Contemporary Sociology). Obesity rates are rising across the United States and beyond. While some claim that people simply eat too much “energy-dense” food while exercising too little, The Neoliberal Diet argues that the issue is larger than individual lifestyle choices. Since the 1980s, the shift toward neoliberal regulation has enabled agribusiness multinationals to thrive by selling a combination of meat and highly processed foods loaded with refined flour and sugars—a diet that originated in the United States. Drawing on extensive empirical data, Gerardo Otero identifies the socioeconomic and political forces that created this diet, which has been exported around the globe at the expense of people’s health. Otero shows how state-level actions, particularly subsidies for big farms and agribusiness, have ensured the dominance of processed foods and made fresh foods inaccessible to many. Comparing agrifood performance across several nations, including the NAFTA region, and correlating food access to class inequality, he convincingly demonstrates the structural character of food production and the effect of inequality on individual food choices. Resolving the global obesity crisis, Otero concludes, lies not in blaming individuals but in creating state-level programs to reduce inequality and make healthier food accessible to all.

Caminos alternativos ante la precarización laboral y la marginación social César Bárcenas Curtis, María Consuelo Lemus Pool, 2023-11-09 El libro Caminos alternativos ante la precarización laboral y la marginación social aborda el deterioro financiero desde las nuevas relaciones entre el trabajo y el capital, pues en el fondo es necesario analizarlo desde la perspectiva de la economía política, es decir, desde el análisis de cómo interactúan las fuerzas antagónicas en un proceso, no solo de generación de riqueza, sino de permanencia y ejercicio del poder a nivel social, cuyo fin se centra y se perpetúa en la acumulación de capital, es decir, que en el proceso de precarización social, encontramos una arquitectura institucional que legitima la vulnerabilidad derivado del deterioro en las condiciones de trabajo; así la contratación temporal o a tiempo parcial modifica la jornada de trabajo para ajustarla a las condiciones tecnológicas de los procesos productivos, mediante trabajo por hora o a tiempo parcial; la caída salarial, pérdida de los ingresos por trabajo y, la desprotección social, son solo ejemplos de la reducción y eliminación de los derechos laborales que generan marginación social.

Soberanía alimentaria y el agro-negocio forestal, Cajibío-Cauca Erazo Quintero, Wilmer Andrés, Lizcano González, Oscar Mauricio, 2017-07-21 Este libro analiza a la soberanía alimentaria, como propuesta política para atender la necesidad vital de la alimentación, una soberanía que es defendida por organizaciones sociales, ciudadanos conscientes de su importancia y, desde luego, por los campesinos.

Identidades, segregación, vulnerabilidad. ¿Hacia la construcción de sociedades inclusivas? Un reto pluridisciplinar.
Sandra Olivero Guidobono, Alfredo José Martínez González, 2021-12-22 Las identidades sociales de grupos étnicos, religiosos, de géneros, corporaciones, etc. se construyen y resignifican a lo largo de las trayectorias vitales de individuos, familias y redes relacionales a través de la historia. Conceptos tales como raza, etnicidad, identidad están siendo analizados desde múltiples enfoques disciplinares y con el uso de una diversidad de fuentes. La heterogeneidad étnica, cultural, social, económica, religiosa genera espacios de encuentros e integración, pero también espacios de conflicto, miedos y discriminación. Instituciones, sectores políticos, económicos y sociales generan fragmentación y un organigrama donde los diferentes grupos sociales deben ser ubicados para conservar un orden conveniente. Dicha fragmentación origina marginalidad, exclusión y reacciones discriminatorias de dominantes sobre oprimidos. Manifestaciones tales xenofobia y racismo se hallan presente a lo largo de la historia y es necesario desde los estudios académicos poner de manifiesto cómo se construyen las identidades sociales -individuales y colectivas- y se resignifican a medida que las sociedades cambian. Esas fronteras indefinidas generan la necesidad de establecer lindes, es decir conducen implícitamente a la discriminación, los comportamientos desiguales y la exclusión.

Sociología rural y de la agricultura: nuevos avances en investigación social de los campos de la globalización agroalimentaria Andrés Pedreño, Carlos de Castro Pericacho, 2025-08-01 Este libro se sitúa dentro de la tradición de los estudios sociales agrarios y rurales que viene desarrollándose en España desde hace décadas desde una perspectiva crítica. La agricultura sigue siendo el sector económico que mayores implicaciones tiene para la gestión de territorio, por ello las ciencias agrosociales han sido también al mismo tiempo un retrato de la sociedad que sostiene esta economía. Si en los años setenta un buen número de publicaciones clásicas dieron cuenta del declive de la agricultura campesina y del éxodo rural-urbano, la entrada de España en la Comunidad Económica Europea y el desarrollo posterior del Mercado Único Europeo marcaron sendos hitos para atender a los nuevos cambios modernizadores en el agro español. Fue la primera oleada globalizadora de la agricultura española. Con el nuevo siglo, el binomio agricultura y sociedad ha experimentado nuevas transformaciones, tales como: la influencia de las grandes cadenas de distribución de ámbito global en la organización de la agricultura, emergencia de un vigoroso polo productivo a lo largo de la vertiente mediterráneo-atlántica dirigido hacia la exportación -especialmente en el subsector de las frutas y hortalizas en fresco-, nuevas estructuras de propiedad con una plena consolidación del modelo empresarial de agricultura intensiva, la reciente entrada de los fondos de inversión en los capitales agrícolas, nuevas regulaciones de la Política Agraria Comunitaria, desarrollo de una gobernanza público-privada a través de los estándares y certificaciones de calidad, el debate medioambiental y los sistemas alternativos de producción de alimentos, etc. Más de una veintena de investigadores e investigadoras de diferentes universidades españolas, latinoamericanas y europeas rastrean en este libro, desde diferentes ópticas teóricas y temáticas, las implicaciones del proceso de desagrarización y descampesinización, en marcha desde hace décadas en las sociedades rurales, como efecto de la globalización de la agricultura y del sistema alimentario. El abordaje crítico que se presenta da cuenta analíticamente de esos procesos simultáneos de desagrarización y globalización agroalimentaria, sin dejar de presentar las posibilidades de alternativas políticas al régimen alimentario global.

Gestión hídrica y planificación del territorio desde la sustentabilidad Alba Nidia Castaño Castaño, Faisury Cardona-Guerrero, Johnny Harold Rojas Padilla, Federico Pinzón Pinzón, Martha Liliana Gaitán Rodríguez, Paola Andrea Bedoya Martínez, Christian Ariel Viafara V., Luis Darío Sánchez Torres, Sara Ortiz Montealegre, Andrés Fernando Echeverri Sánchez, Liliana Ríos Rojas, Héctor Fabio Marroquín, Lorena Ruíz-Cucalón, Yesid Carvajal-Escobar, Elkin de Jesús Salcedo Hurtado, Alexander Gaviria Collazos, 2025-08-05 El libro Gestión hídrica y planificación del territorio desde la sustentabilidad es una recopilación de los trabajos de grado de estudiantes de la Maestría en Desarrollo Sustentable de la Universidad del Valle. El libro contiene metodologías, teorías y casos de estudio que abordan la sustentabilidad como tema central. Se encuentra organizado en dos grandes temáticas: Gestión del agua y sostenibilidad, que contiene cinco capítulos, los cuales exponen la necesidad de avanzar en el conocimiento de la gestión sostenible del agua, para generar espacios de discusión y así entender y abordar las problemáticas y necesidades del agua de una sociedad en constante crecimiento, desde un enfoque integral, con el fin de dar soluciones sostenibles en el largo plazo. Esto, a partir de la economía ecológica y la ecología política, el uso de indicadores e índices de sostenibilidad, la implementación de técnicas más eficientes y el desarrollo de alternativas tecnológicas. La otra temática se denomina Gestión del riesgo para la planificación sustentable del territorio, que consta de cuatro capítulos. Los autores exponen que la gestión del riesgo juega un papel fundamental en la planificación y sustentabilidad del territorio, al considerar las medidas de prevención y reducción de la vulnerabilidad, que son fundamentales para enfrentar un fenómeno amenazante. Realizan un aporte a la evaluación y conceptualización de la vulnerabilidad y la adaptación desde las dimensiones ambiental, social y económica. Así mismo, se muestra un estudio de caso frente al desarrollo urbano no planificado.

Nuevas miradas tras medio siglo de las siete tesis equivocadas sobre América Latina. Arturo Alvarado Mendoza, Serena Chew Plascencia, 2020-01-22 El 25 y 26 de junio de 1965 aparecieron en el periódico El Día las «Siete tesis equivocadas sobre el desarrollo de América Latina», del gran intelectual Rodolfo Stavenhagen. Con una visión continental y comparativa, proponía hacer un balance crítico y forjar una interpretación genuina de los procesos de cambio ocurridos en América Latina. El libro que hoy publica El Colegio de México retoma, entre otros temas, un aspecto fundamental del trabajo académico de Rodolfo Stavenhagen: la vigencia de sus interpretaciones y la persistencia de ciertas problemáticas que señaló a lo largo de su trayectoria intelectual.

Crecimiento, desarrollo y democracia en Colombia Álvaro Albán Moreno, Jorge Alberto Rendón Vélez, 2019-03-01 En la presente obra, se plantea una discusión sobre el desarrollo colombiano desde un enfoque que pretende trascender la perspectiva coyuntural. Se examinan y analizan los acontecimientos sociales, económicos y políticos más relevantes que han modelado la actual estructura socioeconómica del país con el fin de hacer visibles elementos que suelen omitirse en estudios cuya perspectiva no es histórica. Se considera que este ejercicio analítico es importante para valorar con mayor amplitud las posibilidades del logro de un desarrollo sostenido e incluyente en Colombia, condicionadas por factores estructurales que constituyen un peso histórico que no permite afianzar una verdadera senda de crecimiento sostenible y un avance en la equidad de su distribución.

Campesinos y agricultores familiares Gabriela Schiavoni, 2008

Género, poder y desarrollo Sánchez Pérez, Laura, 2020-07-24 Descripción / Resumen (Español / Castellano): Con la entrada en vigor de la Ley Orgánica 3/2007 (conocida como la Ley de Igualdad), la imposición de cuotas de representación paritaria en las candidaturas españolas supuso una alteración de la composición de género en la administración local (por ser el nivel más amplio y elemental de la organización política española), en donde los individuos han tenido que reconfigurar y redefinir tanto sus prácticas como su imaginario, para adaptarse a un escenario forzosamente heterogéneo. En esta tesis se evalúa el estado de la igualdad de género en la política municipal gallega para conocer en qué medida la Ley de Igualdad ha resultado efectiva para generar entornos de participación igualitaria y, al mismo tiempo, para detectar prácticas encubiertas de discriminación que reduzcan su efectividad. A través de una metodología desarrollada específicamente para esta investigación, se presenta un análisis detallado de la situación del acceso femenino al poder, así como de las diferentes situaciones de vulnerabilidad con la que se topan las mujeres en las distintas fases del proceso político: desde la selección de candidatos, pasando por la designación de cargos y también en el reparto de la gestión de las áreas municipales. Así, esta tesis contribuye a identificar situaciones potenciales de riesgo para las mujeres surgidas de este nuevo escenario de participación política, para que puedan ser corregidas a partir de la implementación de medidas específicas para reducir la desigualdad y, de este modo, ayudar a conseguir una igualdad de género efectiva. Descripción / Resumen (Inglés): The Spanish Organic Law 3/2007, on women and men equality, establishes a double quota of gender representation on electoral lists. This fact changed the gender composition of local governments at the most general and elementary level of the Spanish political organization. Politicians have had to reconfigure and redefine both their practices and their imaginary, to adapt to this new necessarily heterogeneous social stage. This dissertation evaluates the gender equality situation in Galician local governments in order to know if the Gender Equality Law has been an effective tool to create an equal participation environment. At the same time this research analyzes and discerns covert practices of discrimination against women.

Through a specifically developed methodology, this research presents a detailed analysis of the female access to municipal power, as well as of the different situations of vulnerability in which women are found in the different stages of the political process: from the selection of the candidates, to the appointment of political positions and in the distribution of the management of the work's areas. This dissertation contributes to identify potential risk situations for women arising from this new stage of gender political participation. In consequence, these bad practices could be corrected through the implementation of specific measures to reduce inequality and, contributing to achieve effective gender equality.

Diálogo social intercultural en territorios multiculturales que acogen procesos de reincorporación Pérez de Armiño, Karlos, Espitia Pérez, Luisa, Cajas, María Isabel, Ante Meneses, Rodrigo, Acevedo Lasso, Carlos, Melo Guzmán, Juanita, Gaviria Collazos, Alexander, Duque Duque, Katherine, 2023-05-23 La construcción de paz en territorios multiculturales en Colombia presenta varios retos, en especial hacia la consolidación de las bases para la convivencia y la reconciliación. En el contexto de la firma del Acuerdo de Paz entre las FARC-EP y el gobierno de Colombia, junto con las reflexiones desde el suroccidente colombiano (departamento del Cauca) en compañía de diversas organizaciones sociales, esta obra pretende: i) ser un insumo para la reflexión y discusión alrededor de los retos y desafíos del proceso de paz en Colombia y en especial en el departamento del Cauca, ii) reconocer la herramienta del diálogo social intercultural para la construcción de paz, iii) ubicar las dinámicas territoriales en clave de reincorporación en contextos de interculturalidad y multiculturalidad como reto central de la reconciliación y, iii) destacar los modelos productivos económicos que se interponen y gestionan a nivel territorial para el desarrollo y la paz.

Creencias y prácticas religiosas en la configuración de identidad territorial entre los campesinos de Boyacá César Enrique, Moreno Baptista, 2023-08-18 Esta investigación etnográfica, parte de la búsqueda del origen de la memoria de la tradición católica de las fiestas patronales y peregrinaciones populares de la época colonial alrededor del culto mariano, en diferentes localidades del departamento de Boyacá. Para el análisis, se toman como punto de partida las creencias extendidas entre los campesinos sobre el origen milagroso de las imágenes patronales. Este carácter milagroso atribuido a la aparición de la Virgen de la Candelaria a inicios del siglo XVII en inmediaciones del municipio de Ráquira, dio origen al topónimo conocido actualmente como desierto de la Candelaria, lo cual es un ejemplo equiparable al de otras imágenes que son huella de identidad colonial. Por otra parte, se analiza la función simbólica de las imágenes patronales en la construcción de identidad entre los campesinos boyacenses, al constituirse en un dispositivo articulador de las relaciones sociales en las diferentes celebraciones de los santuarios de la región.

Viticultura, desigualtat i conflicte agrari Raimon Soler-Becerro, 2019-06-13 Aquest llibre aborda les causes de l'anomenat plet dels rabassaires en el període clau de la seva història, el primer terç del segle xx, a partir de l'anàlisi del desenvolupament de la vitivinicultura, de l'estructura de la propietat i de les característiques de les famílies pageses a la regió vinícola del Penedès, principal focus del moviment en aquest període. L'obra explica com des de l'acció col·lectiva es va afrontar la situació crítica de la vitivinicultura mitjançant l'acció sindical, el cooperativisme i la política.

Cooperativismo e Recriação Camponesa no Capitalismo Fábio Luiz Zeneratti, 2020-03-26 O objetivo do livro Cooperativismo e Recriação Camponesa no Capitalismo é discutir as contribuições e os limites do cooperativismo para o processo de recriação do campesinato inserido no modo capitalista de produção. Com uma pesquisa de campo detalhada e ampla, o autor inova ao visitar dezenas de unidades camponesas vinculadas às cooperativas e apresentar as características da cooperação a partir das experiências dos camponeses, sem perder o parâmetro da totalidade.
