An Ethiopian Reading of the Bible Keon-Sang An, 2015-10-01 This book explores the biblical interpretation of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church (EOTC). In doing so, it illuminates the interpretation of the Bible in a particular historical and cultural context and presents a compelling example of the contextual nature of biblical interpretation. Those who visit Ethiopia experience its unique spirituality, which is significantly informed by the presence of the EOTC. The EOTC has existed from earliest years of the Christian church. It has also developed and maintained its own ecclesiastic tradition in the Ethiopian context and has its own distinctive way of reading the Bible. It is noteworthy, particularly in the African context, that it has its own commentaries on the Scriptures, which continue to serve as a vital tradition in the EOTC's interpretation of the Bible. This is evident in the contemporary hermeneutics and sermons of EOTC preachers. In its comprehensive consideration of the EOTC's past and present, this book examines the interplay between tradition and context in biblical interpretation and contributes to current biblical scholarship.

The Apocrypha through History Edmon L. Gallagher, 2025-03-19 The deuterocanonical books, otherwise called the Apocrypha, have been a part of Christian Bibles for as long as there has been a Christian Bible. For just as long, there have been disputes about their authority. Are they canonical Scripture, or merely edifying literature? These opposing positions can be found in the Church Fathers of the fourth and fifth centuries, who in turn influenced the entire subsequent discussion. The deuterocanonical books were almost always considered beneficial, often canonical, though there emerged with the Reformation in the sixteenth century Christian writers who disputed even the value of these books, suggesting that they might pose dangers to the faithful. The Apocrypha through History surveys the entire history of this issue, with a concentration on materials in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin (for the earlier period) or English and German (for the later period). Edmon L. Gallagher explores the origins of the deuterocanonical books and their reception in Judaism and Christianity, with separate chapters on the New Testament, the patristic period, the Latin West, the Greek East, the Reformation, and the English Bible. At each stage, the book investigates who considered the deuterocanonical books to be fully canonical--or not--and why? The Apocrypha through History provides a thorough yet accessible examination of one aspect of the history of the Bible, concluding with a chapter reflecting on whether it makes a difference if one's bible includes the deuterocanonical books.

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume One Victor I. Ezigbo, 2013-08-21 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty-first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub-Saharan Africa, Asia, and Latin America? The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored. For too long African, Asian, and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions. Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity. Introducing Christian Theologies: Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two-volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of the Christian communities from around the globe. Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe, highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine.

'the Real Scriptures' of God - New Testament James Platter, 2012-09 Inside the covers of this book you will find the Real

Scriptures' of the Christian churches. Many church leaders know that other Christian churches hold to these books but they are only willing to state what they have been brain-washed to believe, that is about the other inferior books: It isn't in the canon (of scripture) formed of course by the early Catholic Church at various stages and Councils from the fourth century A.D. therefore no one has the right to change what is in the canon of scripture and the Catholic Church changed it in their councils not in agreement of other Christians but to hide their offence at the words of God. They would not even imagine that different churches have different scriptures and assume that the correct canon of scripture must be the one first declared by the Catholic Church and its priests but other priests must be considered demented or apostate, but they are not affected by the changes they made to the canon of Scripture over many centuries. They will not consider the canons of Orthodox Churches or others because they vary in different regions of the world. So is European Christianity based in the Vatican City right about all its holy scriptures while everyone else's church scriptures are false scriptures? Ethiopia it seems got most books of scripture right even with their translation into an ancient language! The Real Scriptures', edited by James Platter above, a layman who formerly studied the scriptures for many years with the Baptist Bible Fellowship in San Dimas, California in the United States, but now rejects the reduced 1627 A.D. Version of the KJV Bible, and formally learned the Greek language of the New Testament at Capernwray Missionary Fellowship, Moss Vale, N. S. W. Australia under the Reverend Alan Catchpoole in 1973.

The Ruah of Yah Talic Murphy, 2023-10-27 Have you ever questioned the completeness of the Bible? Did man in His own wisdom make changes to what was and what was not God's inspired Scripture, thereby tarnishing it by the flesh of men? Well, did you know what man calls apocrypha, or the missing books, are in fact the inspired scriptures of God, for they were a part of the Word for over two thousand years and were included within the original King James Bible, published in 1611, and were not removed until 1885, 274 years later? Did not the Lord warn man in Revelation 22:18, saying, For I alert unto all man who discern the utterances of prophecy revealed in Scripture, declaring that everyone who adds unto them, will receive from God the plagues from within the Scriptures? Furthermore, any and all who remove the Words coming from the Scriptures of prophecy will by the hands of God be removed from acquiring their inheritance which lies between the tree of life and the heavenly city revealed in the Scriptures. Did you know all things were first disclosed unto the prophet Enoch? Did you know that because of Enoch's prayer to the Father, a remnant was left on the earth to be saved? Did you know humanity was given only seven thousand years on this earth? Have you ever wondered who God refers to as the ones on His left within the church? Do you desire to know the origins of man, the name of the moon, the sun, and all the hidden mysteries of God that are revealed only to the truly consecrated ones? Then you will be fascinated by The Ruah of Yah: God's Ancient Word, which discloses the secrets of Yah, reveals the coming end, doom of the wicked, and the glory for the holy ones dwelling with angels.
