The Gift of Gifts Jaime Leon, 2022-08-01 There will come a time when pain, illness, doubt, or failure will come into your life unannounced. Without a word or notice, they will latch onto you and will do everything in their power to never let go. Everything in your life will seem like it is coming to an end. It'll seem that your life can't and will not get better. Life will hit you with everything it's got to keep you from getting up. It'll send one of its greatest enforcers to get the job done, fear. Fear will strip you from your strength and your will to survive. James had more downs than ups in his life. Life was constantly presenting him with opposing forces. With every opposing force he encountered, he discovered a common factor the live BASIC formula. The live BASIC formula helped him overcome his opposing forces that life had given him. The live BASIC formula helped him establish a strong relationship with God, and because of it, he overcame his greatest enemy of all, fear. With the live BASIC formula, James was able to put his uttermost trust in God and welcomed whatever decision God would give him. Many decide to go through this journey of life without ever asking for help from God. What we fail to understand is that God blessed humanity with the gift of freedom of choice. God will not force his love on us; instead, He gives us the choice to love and follow him. The freedom of choice can serve as a double-edged sword. We get upset when things don't go our way. If only we'd ask for God's guidance, our life may or may not have brought us into the predicaments we're currently in. Instead, we have become selfish with our time and lives. We want nothing to do with God. Many will argue that he doesn't exist. But what kind of life would that be? A life without God means a life without a purpose. A man or woman without a purpose is destined for a life filled with misery. Throughout our existence, we've wrestled with ourselves in trying to find an answer to what is my purpose in life? Some find its meaning, and others never do. This then leads them down a dark path of emptiness and hopelessness. They start to feel an emptiness growing inside of them, never knowing how to fill it. They try to fill it with money, materialistic things, or meaningless relationships, but it never works! We were all blessed with gifts and talents by our creator God. But we never bother to seek out our gifts and talents; we rob ourselves and the world from them. We were created by God to serve a specific purpose. When we don't carry out our purpose, then we feel as though our life is meaningless. If ever we get to this point, we must then ask God to guide us through our journey of life. God shouldn't be your last resort; on the contrary, God should be the first person you seek in your life's journey.

The Gift of the Great Rays Sally J. McKirgan, 2022-08-11 We have a Choice: Peace or Hell. This collection of essays and poetry including the author's experience of the Great Rays, offers reflections on choosing peace while living in a chaotic world. This world is not always a nice place with mass killings, wars, starvation and death! But, happiness and inner peace are possible because it's a conscious choice, nurtured and attended to carefully. The world is dualistic with opposites; good - bad; love - fear and life - death. Consequently we inherited a dualistic split mind. The ego part chooses judgment and separation. It is NOT your friend being the opposite of love. It manipulates; gives only to get; must always win; is jealous; judges everyone and everything making you fearful and unhappy. Observing the ego is crucial for peace otherwise we don't realize the problem. Question the thoughts that run on automatic. They cover the light and innocence that you are with no promise of peace or freedom. Help is available from the other part of your mind: the higher Self. After tiring of the pain and deciding to find another way, with an open mind we go to the stately calm within. Turning inward to quietness we ask for guidance from the Holy Spirit to see things differently. Now open to the gentle inner voice we choose a different perspective. We listen silently for the thought bringing wisdom and gradually removing the blocks to love shining within. We can't do this with the ego. We need Help from truth residing in the mind. It is simple, life changing and it needs watchfulness and mind training. These essays will help in realizing your true identity: you are innocent; eternal; a Light in this world; you are needed and the promise of peace is worth the effort!

The Gift of Knowledge / Ttnúwit Átawish Nch'inch'imamí Virginia R. Beavert, 2017-06-01 The Gift of Knowledge / Ttnuwit Atawish Nch'inch'imamí is a treasure trove of material for those interested in Native American culture. Author Virginia Beavert grew up in a traditional, Indian-speaking household. Both her parents and her maternal grandmother were shamans, and her childhood was populated by people who spoke tribal dialects and languages: Nez Perce, Umatilla, Klikatat, and Yakima Ichishkíin. Her work on Native languages began at age twelve, when she met linguist Melville Jacobs while working for his student, Margaret Kendell. When Jacobs realized that Beavert was a fluent speaker of the Klikatat language, he taught her to read and write the orthography he had developed to record Klikatat myths. After a stint in the U.S. Air Force during World War II, Beavert went on to earn graduate degrees in education and linguistics, and she has contributed to numerous projects for the preservation of Native language and teachings. Beavert narrates highlights from her own life and presents cultural teachings, oral history, and stories (many in bilingual Ishishkíin-English format) about family life, religion, ceremonies, food gathering, and other aspects of traditional culture.

Rekindle the Gift of God Fr. Roch Kereszty, O.Cist.,2021 Rekindle the gift of God that is within you, Saint Paul urges Timothy years after his ordination (2 Tim 1:6). Drawing on sixty years of experience as a Catholic priest, Cistercian Fr. Roch Kereszty provides realistic spiritual, psychological, and pastoral guidance to priests and seminarians—from preaching and sacramental ministry, to parish life and spiritual direction, to chastity and poverty. Countless priests struggle to understand their role and identity in the post-conciliar Church, where laypeople have taken on many responsibilities once considered priestly. With the sexual abuse crisis kicking up a cloud of confusion and discouragement, many young men are wondering, Why join a system in which everyone is suspect? Meanwhile, without the right guidance, those already ordained can find themselves slipping into boredom—or even cynicism. But Fr. Kereszty knows the fire of a true vocation. With insights and examples from St. Bernard of Clairvaux, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, St. John Paul II, Benedict XVI, and many others, Rekindle the Gift of God helps priests and seminarians discover or rediscover their mission as shepherds, prophets, and teachers. A happy priest is one who lays down his life not only for his flock, but for his Lord. Father Kereszty gives patient, down-to-earth counsel on putting this ideal into practice, and he offers a glimpse of his own immense joy and gratitude for the gift of serving Jesus Christ.

The Gift of Thanks Margaret Visser,2009-11-19 “A scholarly, many-angled examination of what gratitude is and how it functions in our lives” from the bestselling author of The Rituals of Dinner (The New York Times). Known as an “anthropologist of everyday life,” Margaret Visser has won numerous awards for illuminating the unexpected meanings of everyday objects and rituals. Now she turns her keen eye to another custom so ubiquitous that it often escapes notice: saying “Thank you.” What do we really mean by these two simple words? This fascinating inquiry into all aspects of gratitude explores such topics as the unyielding determination of parents to teach their children to thank; the difference between speaking the words and feeling them; and the ways different cultures handle the complex matters of giving, receiving, and returning favors and presents. Visser elucidates the fundamental opposition in our own culture between gift-giving and commodity exchange, as well as the similarities between gratitude and its opposite, vengefulness. The Gift of Thanks considers cultural history, including the modern battle of social scientists to pin down the notion of thankfulness and account for it, and the newly awakened scientific interest in the biological and evolutionary roots of emotions. With characteristic wit and erudition, Visser once again reveals the extraordinary in the everyday. “An anthropological and philosophical account of how and why we give thanks. . . . All delivered in elegant, clear prose. A book to be thankful for—sympathetic to human foible, deeply learned and a pleasure to read.” —Kirkus Reviews “A delightful and graceful gift of a book, for which any fortunate recipient will be thankful.” —Publishers Weekly

Unwrapping the Gift of Mercy David Bennett, 2017-12-13 As an internationally gifted speaker and author, David Bennett explains how God uses believers with the Gift of Mercy to benefit the Body of Christ. Using Biblical characters, great historical men of faith, and contemporary real-life people, David opens the heart and soul of Christians spiritually endowed with the Motivational Gift of Mercy. Beginning with Scripture, David defines and demonstrates the Gift of Mercy as it plays out in real life Christianity. Gleaning from the personal lives of past and present saints, David details how the believer with this Gift can be characterized, identified, motivated, and used in the Church of Jesus Christ today. David believes that for the body of Christ to function successfully each member must recognize his divine purpose and function for the health and growth of the body, and carry out his intended objectives and responsibilities in the power of the Spirit.

The Gift of Gab Jack Hedman, 2012-04-02 The Gift of Gab: A Collection of Recollections is a very appropriate choice for a title. I have good reason to believe that the art of storytelling is disappearing. This is my first attempt at writing a book. I am hoping that in a small way, I will be able to reach out to people in order to convince them that there is significant merit in being able to connect in a personal manner. A few years ago, I listened to a presentation on demographics. The delivery was very smooth and polished. The essential message was that the older generation was doing a poor job communicating with the youth. This new generation makes connections in an entirely different way than their parents. We were told that if we want to connect, we had to become familiar with the new communication vehicle, the electronic media. This is a generation of instant gratitude along with instant results. The use of cell phones, iPads, tablets, computers has become second nature to our youth. They can get answers very quickly simply by using Google. It has reached the point where writing and spelling have lost considerable value. We are encouraging a new generation that will develop muscular thumbs and a language that will be foreign to us. I do not pretend to have answers, nor do I believe that this change is necessarily a bad thing. However, I do believe that we have the power to enhance the connection with children at a very early age. We have an opportunity to preserve special moments by taking some time to read or tell stories that hold meaning for children when they are still young enough to believe. Sid Asselin was a master storyteller. I coached a lot of high school sports while living in Fort Frances. Our closest rival was one hundred kilometers away, four hundred kilometers for the most distant. On these trips, Sid was our driver, and he could stretch out a story for hours. This audience probably averaged sixteen years in age. They would get quite caught up in it all. I had two nieces and a nephew growing up in southern Ontario who believed that Uncle Jack lived in the wild woods of Ontario. When they were young, every visit I made led to the same request: tell us the story about how . . . saved your life. I had no idea at the time what kind of impact these stories would deliver. As young adults, they made a request to me to record on paper the substance and silliness that went into these tall tales. Now that they have young children of their own, I have a strong sense of the rationale for that request. I wish I could remember more of his stories, but the epic of a beaver, the blind moose, and the legend of Fallen Rock should adequately help fulfill my goal. This book should hold appeal for parents also because it does hold a few smatterings of how our own parents took liberty in stretching the truth in order to make a point. I hope that you enjoy this book and find motivation to share some stories of your own, true or nonsensical, with your children or grandchildren.

The Gift of Rest Joseph I. Lieberman, David Klinghoffer, 2012-08-07 Discusses the importance of observing the Jewish Sabbath as both a practical and spiritual exercise, and provides guidelines for properly incorporating the Sabbath into everyday life.

The Poison in the Gift Gloria Goodwin Raheja, 1988-06 The Poison in the Gift is a detailed ethnography of gift-giving in a North Indian village that powerfully demonstrates a new theoretical interpretation of caste. Introducing the concept of ritual centrality, Raheja shows that the position of the dominant landholding caste in the village is grounded in a central-peripheral configuration of castes rather than a hierarchical ordering. She advances a view of caste as semiotically constituted of contextually shifting sets of meanings, rather than one overarching ideological feature. This new understanding undermines the controversial interpretation advanced by Louis Dumont in his 1966 book, Homo Hierarchicus, in which he proposed a disjunction between the ideology of hierarchy based on the purity of the Brahman priest and the temporal power of the dominant caste or the king.

Humaniqueness: The Gift of Your Inner God Glauco Ortolano, 2008-07-04 After reading a recently published book by a paleontologist who claims he found the missing link between humans and aquatic species that lived billions of years ago, Glauco Ortolano answers back with HUMANIQUENESS, a thought provoking and inspirational book linking humans to a more divine heritage than fish. From a poem written by Vicente Huidobro, an early 20th Century Chilean poet, Glauco Ortolano builds a fascinating paradigm to challenge the contemporary views on human evolution based solely on scientific evidences. We are small gods, not evolved fish, and it's time we put an end to all that nonsense, says Ortolano. The response from the scientific community has been outrageous, including personal attacks on Mr. Ortolano's reputation as a prominent scholar. Humaniqueness is a must read for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of what it means to be human and semi-divine. It will enlighten and bring you into full realization of our unique faculties, gifts, and destiny as a species.
