Living with a SEAL Jesse Itzler, 2015-11-03 Entrepreneur Jesse Itzler chronicles his month of living and extreme fitness training with a Navy SEAL in the New York Times and #1 LA Times bestseller Living With a Seal, now with two bonus chapters. Entrepreneur Jesse Itzler will try almost anything. His life is about being bold and risky. So when Jesse felt himself drifting on autopilot, he hired a rather unconventional trainer to live with him for a month-an accomplished Navy SEAL widely considered to be the toughest man on the planet! Living With a Seal is like a buddy movie if it starred the Fresh Prince of Bel-Air. . .and Rambo. Jesse is about as easy-going as you can get. SEAL is. . . not. Jesse and SEAL's escapades soon produce a great friendship, and Jesse gains much more than muscle. At turns hilarious and inspiring, Living With a Seal ultimately shows you the benefits of stepping out of your comfort zone.

Bike Across America Gary W. Dodd, Faith Dodd, Andrew W. Dodd, 2004-01 Bike across America: The Journals shares the story of how one family turned a random comment by a child into the life-changing experience of a family bicycle ride across the forty-eight contiguous states of the United States of America. Gary, Faith, Andrew, and Rebekah Dodd rode their bicycles on a continuous route of approximately 9,500 miles from Seattle, Washington to Cape Elizabeth, Maine. Their once-in-a-lifetime journey has been chronicled by many television broadcasts, newspapers, and journals across the U.S.A., and the Dodd family has been featured on Good Morning America three times and on Radical Sabbaticals. As you ride with the Dodds over the back roads of America, you will discover unique places you may want to visit, and you will experience the ride through their colorful vignettes and about 600 photographs. You also will be reminded of the good in America as you read about the encounters of the Dodd family with the people who enriched their journey. The pursuit by one family of a shared dream will encourage you to set new goals for your family as you envision what your own family can become and accomplish together. The daily accounts of the bike ride will inspire you to not be satisfied with the status quo in your life and prod you to consider ways that you can stretch yourself. Selected by Good Morning America as one of America's Most Amazing Families, the Gary Dodd family invites you to enjoy their bike ride through the most beautiful country in the world. If you are looking for a great read about travel and you want to be motivated to accomplish more with your life, then Bike across America: The Journals is a worthwhile read for you!

A Bike Trip Across America Patrick McGinty,2020-03-24 An adventurer overcomes his fear of attempting the seemingly impossible goal of biking across America. He puts you on the bike seat in a journey of discovery. You will experience, through his eyes, epic landscapes, amazing people, overcoming adversity, and the great triumph of achieving the dream of a solo bike ride across the USA.

Hey Mom, Can I Ride My Bike Across America? John Seigel Boettner,1990

A Bike Across America Steve Ritter,2014-07-09 As a midlife challenge, author Steve Ritter decided to leave the comforts of home and the daily routine of his office and set out on an epic journey to bicycle across the United States. Ritter wanted to rediscover his rural roots, explore nature, immerse himself in the rich history of his country, and find out if he still had the endurance of his youth. He wanted to see what other people did every day as he sat at his desk. In A Bike across America, he narrates the story of his thirty-five day, 3,461-mile journey that began April 27, 2013, in Virginia Beach, Virginia, and ended in Newport, Oregon. This travelogue shares Ritter's thoughts, expectations, and surprises--battling the weather, equipment failures, and his doubts and fears, and being assisted by kind-hearted strangers. With some history and geography included, Ritter tells how this cross-country ride changed his life. Frank and honest, A Bike across America recounts Ritter's ultimate road trip--one that taught this fifty-year-old empty nester that through perseverance and determination, it could be done.

Across America By Motor-Cycle Charles Kenilworth Sheperd,2021-06-27 " ...When I arrived at New York I purchased a motor-cycle and set out to cross the continent to the Pacific, and I have it on the best authority that this was the first time an Englishman had ever accomplished the trip on a motor-cycle. In the following pages I have endeavoured to portray America and Americans exactly as I found them and as they appealed to me. If at times I perchance may give offence to any who are lovers of all and anything American, I do it without intent. Suffice it to say that before I went I had the highest opinion of anything that came from that worthy country, so that it cannot be claimed that I am one of those " Pro-British-every- time " individuals who delight in criticizing other countries and other peoples in order to gratify their own sense of national or other superiority." RAF Captain Charles Kenilworth Shepherd's account of riding his motorcycle across the U.S. in 1919.

Under a Triumphant Sky Steve Garufi,2014-12-11 Under a Triumphant Sky is more than a bicycle narrative. It is a human story about facing your fears and overcoming adversity - all for the pursuit of a lifelong dream. Steve Garufi pedaled solo across America for forty-five days from Del Mar, California to Jekyll Island, Georgia. A thief stole his bike in Phoenix. A mechanical failure in the desert led to an angry meltdown. There were chasing dogs, flat tires, run-ins with semi-trucks, exhaustion and loneliness. Readers will encounter colorful characters, beautiful scenery, treacherous roads and Steve himself - a mental health therapist who searches for the deeper meanings of our shared human experience. You'll be with him in joy, anger, fear, doubt, worry and more than a few eruptions in laughter. With a raw faith in God (Jesus), his steely determination to honor an inner compass guides him to persist until he embraces his final moment of triumph.

Bike Across America 1965 Norm Hansen, 2021-09-21 This book chronicles two young men trying to find their way through the confusing issues of the '60s. One trying to find his father and the other trying to find his future. Neither could have realized the different American cultures they would encounter, which would etch into their lives forever.

Bicycling Across America's Great Northwest: When Fear and Faith Collide Joe Tarantino, 2018-01-26 Joe Tarantino describes the fifth and final leg of his 3,600-mile bicycle ride across the North American continent started thirty-one years earlier. Previous trips had left him with nearly 1,700 miles remaining from the Pacific coast to his prior stopping point in Winner, South Dakota, just east of the Badlands. After what began as a to-do on his bucket list, Joe eventually realized the final segment of his trip had become something God now wanted him to do. Riding by himself, Joe began his trip in Seaside, Oregon. He crossed the Columbia River over the Astoria-Megler Bridge into the state of Washington and was promptly greeted with record-high temperatures while crossing the Cascade Mountain range and eastern Washington deserts. Along the way, Joe encountered folks from all walks of life and demographics who provided support and encouragement at the times he needed it most. His wife, Barbara, eventually met him in Harrison, Idaho, driving a rented SUV, providing additional support and sharing in his daily adventures. In addition to the record heat, mountain ranges, and deserts, they also endured a 5.8-magnitude earthquake while staying in a one-hundred-year-old log cabin hotel in a remote area of Montana, the epicenter occurring only a few miles from where they had spent the night. Joe describes how God answered daily prayers for protection and provided new insights into Psalm 23 through the people and circumstances he encountered each day. Joe's description of his trip will help you understand not only the physical challenges of such a journey but deep insight into his mind during the daily rides. In addition to entertaining you, this book will challenge, motivate, and inspire you to maybe accomplish something you thought impossible while encouraging you to reevaluate your own relationship with the Creator.

The Road Headed West Leon McCarron, 2015-07-14 What happens when you swap the nine-to-five for two wheels and a journey of a lifetime? Terrified of the prospect of a life spent behind a desk, without challenge or excitement, Leon takes off to cross America on an overloaded bicycle packed with everything but common sense. Over five months and 6000 miles, he cycled from New York to Seattle and then on to the Mexican border, facing tornados, swollen river crossings, wild roaming buffalo and one hungry black bear along the way. But he also met kind strangers, who offered their food, wisdom, hospitality and even the occasional local history lesson, and learned what happens when you take a chance and follow the scent of adventure. With a sharp eye and a genuine go-where-the-wind-takes-me attitude, McCarron makes for an ideal guide on this cycling adventure. He passes through small towns, rolls up and flies down the winding roads of the Blacks Hills is taken in and fed by strangers, all on a quest to discover the “real” America, and in the process, learn a little about himself. Funny, insightful, and full of life, The Road Headed West will inspire readers to chase their dreams and go off in search of adventure.

Biking Across America Paul Stutzman, 2013-05-15 After taking readers down the Appalachian Trail, Paul Stutzman brings them on a new adventure, biking from Neah Bay, Washington, to Key West, Florida, encountering fascinating people along the way.

Across America by Motor-Cycle (Classic Reprint) C. K. Shepherd, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from Across America by Motor-Cycle A few months after the Armistice of 1918 was signed, when the talk of everyone concerned was either when they would be demobilized or what they would do when they were demobilized, two young men were exchanging views on this same subject in the heavy atmosphere of a very ordinary hotel somewhere in London. One was wondering how near, or how far, were the days when he would see the old home-folks once again way back in Dixieland. The other was wondering what form of dissipation would be best suited to remove that haunting feeling of unrest, which as a result of three or four years of active service was so common amongst the youth of England at that time. How about getting married? suggested the one. Then followed a long pause, wherein the other was evidently considering the pros and cons of such a unique proposition. Nothing doing, he replied eventually - not exciting enough, old man. Another pause - And when I come to think, I don't know of any girl who'd want to marry me even if I wanted to marry her. And as if to give a final decision to any proposal of that nature, he added - Besides, I couldn't afford it! But I tell you what I will do, Steve, said he, I'll go back with you across yon herring-pond and have a trot round America.
