Something Like This Alyne Hart, 2018-12-18 Vincent Owen. He was gorgeous. He was cocky. He was a complete and total douche bag, and I was head over heels for him. He left to become a champion, a warrior amongst men. And though he said he would call, I never heard from him again. I never admitted to him how I felt. I never told him he made everything inside of me that hurt go away and everything that was wrong with me feel right - even if it were just for a little while. And that when he left, he took a little piece of me with him, a piece of my heart I could never get back. That was then, and this is now and none of that matters anymore. It all changed the day my daughter Violet was born. I moved on, life became about her and keeping my family ranch running. But now he's back to pay his respects to the man his best friend considered a father. A man our whole town loved, and he's about to find out that's not the only thing waiting for him in Evansdale. Together again it's time to face the truth. For both of us. The biggest question now is, is he ready for something like this?

On My Way Nicole Narvato,2020-12-16 "I feel like I always show people my bright side. It is time you know the dark side that made me, ME. Harvey Shaw Hart,2023-04-27 Harvey Warner might have lost it. His mind, that is. His heart he just willingly gave away as soon as his eyes landed on the curvy chef working in her food truck outside of Eye Candy Ink one night. In his defense, he's never been great at talking to women, but now that he's met the girl of his dreams, the stakes are higher than ever, so blurting out his name and the cheesiest pick-up line ever isn't a great start to their relationship. The only saving grace is that the voluptuous chef seems to find his clumsy attempt at flirting endearing. The pick-up lines shouldn't work on anyone, but somehow Coraline seems to kind of dig it. Will pursuing Coraline ruin everything? Or will he finally get the happily ever after that he's been dreaming about ever since he first laid eyes on her?
