Provenance: Privacy and Security - Duke University Provenance privacy requires ensuring confidentiality while maintaining availability, whereas provenance security requires ensuring availability while maintaining integrity. Microsoft Word - stumpf_prov_pospaper_1005_scs.doc Associated with this is how provenance relationship graphs can be visualized to encourage successful exploration. We have designed user studies to answer these questions in order to advance the role of provenance relationships in information retrieval. Data Provenance: A Categorization of Existing Approaches - IIT The category storage and recording includes the approaches a provenance management system uses to store provenance information, to record provenance information and to propagate provenance information recorded for source data items. Provenance: A Future History - Department of Computer ... In this paper, we outline the current state of provenance research and practice, identify hard open research problems involving provenance semantics, formal modeling, and security, and articulate a vision for the future of provenance. Provenance: What is it and why do we care? PROVENANCE: “The pedigree of a book’s previous ownership. This may be clearly marked by the owner’s name, arms, bookplate, or evidence in the book itself; or it may have to be pieced together from such outside sources as auction records or booksellers’ catalogues.” Provenance-XG-Overview-11-30-10.ppt - World Wide Web ... Nov 30, 2010 · Specifically, it defines how to access provenance embedded in an html document using RDFa, how to access provenance from a service by means of HTTP, and how to query provenance through a SPARQL endpoint. Usage of the term provenance in LIS literature: An Annual ... Our provenance typology, particularly provenance as system characterization and discriminators, demonstrates how provenance is used in non-LIS disciplines. Improving an understanding of these uses within LIS will improve col-laborative research between LIS and other fields.
