Apart from this more technology related products like mobiles, laptops, other computing devices like PCs, tablets and finally the voyeuristic appeal with open networks will drive the usage further. Most popular social networking site in India is Facebook as recently it dethroned Indonesia from the number two slot with 46 million monthly active users in February 2012 on the site, an increase of 132% from the prior year. Urban cities like Mumbai, Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata, Bangalore, Hyderabad, Pune, Ahmedabad and other tier 1 and 2 cities and towns dominate the social networking usage in India. 75% is dominated by male and mostly the young students and professionals in the age group of 18-24 are dominating the social media usage followed by the 25- 34 age group. Thoughts of a Young Man Joyjit Chatterjee, Today's youth has some extremely negative connotations, which is slowly leading them to depression and anxiety, giving rise to social evils. The rapid switchover from the good old books to the addictive technology and computer games reminds of the good old days of the 90's, when people would wait at a bookstore to grab a copy of that special book before the stock was over, when the youth would play Kho-Kho and Carrom and winning that game would give the happiness that money couldn't buy. In those days, reading a short poem would give inner peace to an individual. Through this short collection of poems, random thoughts and inspirational quotes, every person in his/her young days, right from teenagers to university students, from fresh graduates to professionals, would be able to relate with themselves in some way or other, the thoughts unfolding in this book.
