Léon le caméléon et la couleur des émotions Adeline Camus,2019-12-20T00:00:00Z Léon est un petit caméléon doté d'une grande sensibilité, il change de couleur en fonction de ses émotions. Pour cela, il se replie dans son refuge où tout est calme et paisible. Il gonfle alors une bulle imaginaire et souffle dedans toutes ses émotions trop intenses. Puis il envoie sa bulle dans le ciel qu'il regarde s'envoler au loin avec toutes ses émotions désagréables. Pour enfants de 3 à 9 ans. Livre appartenant à la collection Billes de Relaxation, chaque histoire contient un véritable exercice de Sophrologie ou de Méditation

Le Pouvoir Miraculeux de JESUS tome 2 Jack L..

Mind, Values, and Metaphysics Anne Reboul,2014-08-06 There are three themed parts to this book: values, ethics and emotions in the first part, epistemology, perception and consciousness in the second part and philosophy of mind and philosophy of language in the third part. Papers in this volume provide links between emotions and values and explore dependency between language, meanings and concepts and topics such as the liar's paradox, reference and metaphor are examined. This book is the second of a two-volume set that originates in papers presented to Professor Kevin Mulligan, covering the subjects that he contributed to during his career. This volume opens with a paper by Moya, who proposes that there is an asymmetrical relation between the possibility of choice and moral responsibility. The first part of this volume ends with a description of foolishness as insensitivity to the values of knowledge, by Engel. Marconi's article makes three negative claims about relative truth and Sundholm notes shortcomings of the English language for epistemology, amongst other papers. This section ends with a discussion of the term 'subjective character' by Nida-Rümelin, who finds it misleading. The third part of this volume contains papers exploring topics such as the mind-body problem, whether theory of mind is based on simulation or theory and Künne shows that the most common analyses of the so-called 'Liar' paradox are wanting. At the end of this section, Rizzi introduces syntactic cartography and illustrates its use in scope-discourse semantics. This second volume contains twenty nine chapters, written by both high profile and upcoming researchers from across Europe, North America and North Africa. The first volume of this set has two main themes: metaphysics, especially truth-making and the notion of explanation and the second theme is the history of philosophy with an emphasis on Austrian philosophy.

Landscape and Sustainable Development Yves Luginbühl, Peter Howard, 2016-03-09 Previously published in French by Éditions Quae, this volume presents findings of a major research programme into landscape and sustainable development. While led by French scholars, the research team and geographical scope of the project was international, collaborative and comparative. Using case studies from across Europe, the interdisciplinary team of contributors discuss the relationship between landscape as defined by the European Landscape Convention and the concept of sustainable development. This English edition has a new introduction written by Yves Luginbühl and Peter Howard. The book is then divided into three sections: Biophysical Realities and Landscape Practice; Landscape Resources-Inheritance and Renewal; Governance and Participation. Some of the topics covered, such as wind-farm landscapes, will be familiar to English language readers, but others, such as footpath economics, non-woodland trees, inter-generational equity, and the insistence on the necessary developments in governance less so.

L'anthropologie face à ses objets Olivier Leservoisier, Laurent Vidal, 2007 L'histoire de l'anthropologie est scandée par des débats de nature épistémologique et méthodologique sur les conditions de déploiement de son regard : sont alors interrogés les pratiques du terrain, les dispositifs d'analyse, les procédures de restitution et les rapports aux Instances politiques. La multiplication de situations conflictuelles ; les expressions multiformes de la transnationalisation des religions, des codes culturels et des économies ; les références revisitées au passé... autant de nouveaux contextes qui amènent à s'interroger sur les conditions actuelles de l'exercice ethnologique et, au-delà, de contribuer à dresser un état des lieux de la discipline. Cet ouvrage vise ainsi à prolonger et enrichir la réflexion engagée dans des ouvrages parus récemment sur le sujet, en faisant porter la réflexion sur les changements en cours que connaît le métier d'ethnologue et en posant la réflexivité comme condition de la production de connaissances nouvelles, loin de toute idée d'enfermement introspectif

Shadows of the Soul Christine Tappolet,Fabrice Teroni,Anita Konzelmann Ziv,2018-01-12 Negative emotions are familiar enough, but they have rarely been a topic of study in their own right. This volume brings together fourteen chapters on negative emotions, written in a highly accessible style for non-specialists and specialists alike. It starts with chapters on general issues raised by negative emotions, such as the nature of valence, the theoretical implications of nasty emotions, the role of negative emotions in fiction, as well as the puzzles raised by ambivalent and mixed emotions. The second part of the volume consists of studies of specific emotional phenomena, ranging from the emotion of being moved and the sense of uncanniness to jealousy, hatred, shame, contempt, anxiety, and grief.

Sociologie des émotions Christine Détrez,Kevin Diter,2025-06-18 Les dix dernières années se sont caractérisées en France par un essor de publications, en sciences sociales, sur et autour des émotions, au point qu'on a pu évoquer l'existence d'un « emotional turn ». Ce manuel rend compte de ce récent champ de recherche qu'est la sociologie des émotions, avec ses fondements théoriques, des exemples empiriques et les enjeux épistémologiques de sa constitution. Il s'agit de s'interroger, dans un premier temps, sur les raisons historiques du rejet ou de la dévalorisation des émotions chez les « pères fondateurs » de la sociologie. Seront explorés ensuite les apports de la sociologie des émotions, en posant la question de ce que peut la sociologie en matière d'émotions : doit-elle se limiter à l'analyse des variations sociales de la gestion et des expressions émotionnelles ? Ou son ambition peut-elle aller jusqu'à explorer les variations sociales des ressentis eux-mêmes, voire à expliciter leur origine et leur développement, souvent relégués dans le champ de la biologie ou de la psychologie ? En quoi la prise en compte des émotions vient-elle enrichir des thématiques classiques comme la sociologie politique, la sociologie de la culture, de l'enfance, du travail ou du goût ? Enfin, la réflexion portera sur la place du chercheur dans cette prise en compte des émotions : les émotions ne sont-elles qu'un objet, sociologiquement construit, ou viennent-elles interroger la place, extérieure, surplombante, du chercheur, exigeant de lui d'être, également, « affecté » ?

Concepts in Thought, Action, and Emotion Christoph Demmerling,Dirk Schröder,2020-12-29 In recent years, the idea of a concept has become increasingly central to different areas of philosophy. This collection of original essays presents philosophical perspectives on the link between concepts and language, concepts and experience, concepts and know-how, and concepts and emotion. The essays span a variety of interrelated philosophical domains ranging from epistemology, philosophy of language, philosophy of mind, philosophy of action, and the philosophy of emotions. Among the central questions addressed by the contributors are: What are concepts? What is nonconceptual content? Does perceptual experience have conceptual content? Is conceptual thought language dependent? How do we form new concepts? Does practical knowledge have propositional content? Is practical understanding conceptual (without being propositional)? Do emotions have a representational content and if so, is the representational content conceptual? Concepts in Thought, Action, and Emotion advances current debates about concepts and will interest scholars across a broad range of philosophical disciplines.

Phénoménologie des émotions Ondřej Švec, 2013-07-09 A partir d'un examen critique des théories des passions de Descartes à Spinoza, O. Švec élabore une théorie phénoménologique des émotions destinée à dépasser l'alternative entre les théories somatiques et les théories cognitives. Il apporte un regard synthétique sur les théories contemporaines des émotions.

Sociologie des émotions Nathalie Burnay, 2022-06-13 Approche novatrice en sociologie d'une dimension réservée jusqu'ici à la psychologie autour d'une problématique très contemporaine : les émotions. Les émotions, traditionnellement étudiées en psychologie, s'imposent progressivement dans la sociologie contemporaine. Penser une grammaire sociologique de l'émotion, c'est avant tout admettre que les émotions traversent les expériences sociales et qu'il existe une forme d'historicité de l'émotion. Aujourd'hui, plus qu'hier encore, penser les émotions s'avère relever d'un devoir théorique, épistémologique et méthodologique de la sociologie. Ce livre rassemble les contributions de 12 spécialistes qui font émerger la question émotionnelle dans la discipline sociologique et montrent comment les transformations sociales contemporaines affectent les acteurs sociaux, mais aussi le travail sociologique. Pour les étudiants, professeurs et chercheurs en sociologie.

Ex(tra)territorial Didier Lassalle, Dirk Weissmann, 2014-08-01 As a judicial concept dating back to the 17th century, the term ex(tra)territoriality has long excited the interest of scholars and writers who have, since the 20th century, not hesitated to appropriate the notion, widening and transforming it in the process. This transfer to the field of humanities has opened a new space of reflection, a space for imagination, through the means of a creative re-reading, among others, which has given rise to new but related concepts such as "deterritorialization". To take into account the growing importance of this extraterritoriality paradigm reassessing the idea of territory in literature, culture and languages, this book offers an interdisciplinary and plurilingual journey through four centuries, four continents and a dozen languages, from literature to new media, encompassing philosophy, history, linguistics, the press, the cinema... Notion juridique remontant au XVII<sup>e</sup> siècle, le terme d'ex(tra)territorialité suscite depuis longtemps l'intérêt des sciences humaines et de la littérature qui, depuis le XX<sup>e</sup> siècle, n'ont pas hésité à se l'approprier pour l'élargir et le transformer. Ce transfert du qualificatif ex(tra)territorial vers les humanités a ouvert un autre espace de réflexion, un espace d'imagination, grâce notamment à une relecture créatrice, ce qui a pu donner lieu à de nouveaux concepts apparentés comme celui de « déterritorialisation ». Pour tenir compte de l'importance grandissante d'une pensée de l'ex(tra)territorialité, mettant en question de la notion de territoire dans les domaines littéraire, culturel et linguistique, le présent ouvrage propose un parcours interdisciplinaire et plurilingue à travers quatre siècles, quatre continents et une dizaine de langues, de la littérature aux nouveaux médias, en passant par la philosophie, l'histoire, la linguistique, la presse, le cinéma, etc.

Emotions, Mobilisations and South Asian Politics Amélie Blom, Stéphanie Tawa Lama-Rewal, 2019-07-09 This book highlights the role of emotions in the contentious politics of modern South Asia. It brings new methodological, theoretical and empirical insights to the mutual constitution of emotions and mobilisations in India, Pakistan and Bangladesh. As such, it addresses three distinct but related questions: what do emotions do to mobilisations? What do mobilisations do to emotions? Further, what does studying emotions in mobilisations reveal about the political culture of protest in South Asia? The chapters in this volume emphasise that emotions are significant in politics because they have the power to mobilise. They explore a variety of emotions including anger, resentment, humiliation, hurt, despair, and nostalgia, and also enchantment, humour, pleasure, hope and enthusiasm. The interdisciplinary research presented here shows that integrating emotions improves our understanding of South Asian politics while, conversely, focusing on South Asia helps retool current thinking on the emotional dynamics of political mobilisations. The book offers contextual analyses of how emotions are publicly represented, expressed and felt, thus shedding light on the complex nature of protests, power relations, identity politics, and the political culture of South Asia. This cutting-edge research volume intersects South Asian studies, emotion studies and social movement studies, and will greatly interest scholars and students of political science, anthropology, sociology, history and cultural studies, and the informed general reader interested in South Asian politics.

Psychologie des émotions Olivier Luminet, 2008-01-15 Cet ouvrage examine les conséquences à court et à long terme des situations émotionnelles qui traversent notre existence. Face à celles-ci, on distingue deux modes de réaction. Soit nos pensées et nos paroles en rapport avec cette situation témoignent d'une activité de confrontation. Soit notre engagement dans des activités nous permettent d'en effacer le souvenir et constituent ainsi l'indicateur d'un processus d'évitement. Le livre examine un ensemble de situations et de caractéristiques stables qui orientent nos réponses dans un sens ou dans l'autre. À chaque fois, leurs conséquences pour l'adaptation émotionnelle sont discutées. Cet ouvrage très didactique s'adresse tout particulièrement aux professeurs et étudiants en psychologie, aux chercheurs et aux psychologues.
