LA ESTACION DE SERVICIOS. LABORATORIO DE ARQUITECTURA RODRIGUEZ ARIAS ALBERTO,2025-01-15 Esta publicación muestra el importante papel que las estaciones de servicios tuvieron en las vanguardias arquitectónicas de la posguerra en España, además de destacar como estas construcciones, de tamaño limitado, dispersas por la geografía, han servido, casi desde el anonimato, como laboratorio de investigación a sus creadores en una época de cambios radicales en la arquitectura. Desde 1927, año de la construcción de la gasolinera Porto Pi, diseñada por Casto Fernández-Shaw Iturralde, y de la creación del Monopolio de Petróleos en España, hasta mediados de la década de los sesenta, fueron numerosos los ejemplos de arquitectura vanguardista que se dieron cita en esta tipología, que por otra parte parece estar próxima a su fin tras solamente cien años en servicio. Las estaciones de servicios representaron una nueva tipología arquitectónica, sin apenas referencias anteriores, lo que facilitó la ruptura con las tradiciones. Su vinculación directa con el automóvil, ya de por sí un invento representativo de la modernidad y su contenida escala la convirtieron en la tipología perfecta con la que experimentar y ensayar nuevas formas y conceptos, acordes con las corrientes arquitectónicas llegadas de Europa, acercándolas a la sociedad, de un modo más inmediato que otros edificios más arraigados en las tradiciones. Este libro no es solo un análisis del impacto que las gasolineras tuvieron en el panorama arquitectónico si no que supone además un detallado catálogo de edificios arquitectónicamente interesantes, algunos desaparecidos, otros muy modificados y otros abandonados, a la vez que pretende colaborar con la difusión, puesta en valor y protección de los todavía existentes, evitando pérdidas irreversibles en el patrimonio arquitectónico español.

Gestión comercial de servicios financieros Enrique Castelló Muñoz, 2007 El libro trata de exponer tanto al estudiante como al profesional del sector financiero que el reto de las entidades financieras está en adoptar el denominado enfoque de «Banca de clientes». La idea central es la de rentabilizar la relación con cada cliente y vincularle al máximo. Los casos prácticos que se incluyen en el texto ayudan a una mejor comprensión de los modelos de gestión comercial utilizados en el ámbito de los Bancos, las Cajas de Ahorros y las Cooperativas de Crédito. Los cambios producidos en el entorno financiero son, entre otras razones, las que justifican la aplicación del marketing a los servicios financieros. El centro de atención ha ido trasladándose del producto al cliente, haciendo que las estrategias de marketing adquieran un papel relevante y diferenciado entre las entidades financieras. En la Nueva Economía, el marketing también se ha transformado profundamente. El mayor aporte de Internet en el área de marketing es la posibilidad de desarrollar el concepto de marketing relacional. Sistemas de aplicación en Caja Madrid, Solbank y Bancos de inversión son ejemplos de esta nueva orientación del marketing financiero. Los modelos de gestión comercial implantados por el Banco Popular y Banco Sabadell conciben al cliente como centro de negocio con el objetivo de que valore la calidad del servicio y el trato personalizado. La gestión avanzada de clientes está cobrando una mayor importancia estratégica en el mundo empresarial. Concretamente las técnicas CRM, Business Intelligence, etc., se están aplicando (caso SCH) con buenos resultados por las entidades financieras como soporte al crecimiento del negocio. Con carácter eminentemente práctico, se tratan los segmentos emergentes de clientes elegidos por las entidades financieras para poder hacer su negocio: personas adineradas, inmigrantes, jóvenes, pequeñas y medianas empresas, euro-residentes y personas mayores. El diseño de estrategias en función del ciclo de vida del cliente, el servicio de gesti.

Judicial Review in EU Law Alexander H. Türk, 2010-01-01 Judicial review constitutes an important aspect of any legal system operating under the rule of law. This book provides a comprehensive account of judicial review in EU law by assessing the vast and complex case-law of the European Court of Justice (ECJ) in this area and the academic opinion which has accompanied its rulings over the years. It questions the prevalent view in academic literature that the Court's restrictive approach to allowing individuals direct access to the Community Courts, in case of a challenge against normative acts, amounts to a denial of an effective remedy. The author argues that the emerging constitutional nature of the European Union and its federal structure requires a more balanced view. While it will improve direct access for individuals to the Union's judiciary, the Lisbon Treaty will not radically alter the system of judicial review in the European Union. Judicial Review in EU Law will be of great interest to academics, and given its detailed discussion of case-law of the ECJ it will also appeal to postgraduate students of European law. Dealing with an important aspect of legal practice, it will be invaluable reading for practitioners in law firms and officials working in local, regional and central government.

Directory of EU Case Law on State Aids René Barents, 2016-06-01 Since the first edition of this immensely useful book – which coincided with the start of the global financial crisis in 2008 – there have been numerous high-profile cases on State aid. This new edition, which follows the same proven format as its predecessor, updates its analysis of case law with hundreds of new decisions by the EU courts, and thus remains the quickest source of reference for practitioners working with EU State aid matters. Following a highly organized sequence of subject headings, it presents extracts from all judgments and orders of both the Court of Justice and the General Court of the EU on the TFEU rules on State aids (Articles 107-109). Each subject heading starts with extracts having a more general meaning, followed by extracts relating to specific points or situations. Under each extract or summary, the judgments and orders are referred to by case number in ascending order. The book covers all the case law of both courts until the end of 2015. With this book practitioners will quickly find relevant paragraphs and full citations regarding all issues raised by Articles 107-109 TFEU, including the following and much more: - territorial scope of State aids; - Article 107(1) EC and WTO Agreements; - conditions for categorizing a national measure as State aid; - free movement of goods; - undertakings; - private versus public investment; - justification of selective measures; - interstate trade and competition; - the Altmark conditions for public service aid; - restructuring aids; - procedural aspects; - locus standi of trade associations; and - existing aids and new aids. In many areas, the extracts of this book relate to points of the judgments which are not or only partially covered in official summaries. For accessibility of this case law, this book has no peers. As with the first edition, practitioners in the field of EU State aid law will find it indispensable.
