Ever tried to hustle your way through a high-stakes poker game, knowing that the month's rent was on the line? Ever used the velvet touch of persuasion to angle your next pool shot or card play, ensuring the game's outcome before the final move? That's where I crafted my mastery in sales. Some get their sales savvy from polished boardrooms or prestigious MBA programs. Me, I learned the art of sales, persuasion and negotiating in the streets. Every move was calculated, and every game was a lesson in negotiation. The streets were my Ivy League, teaching me more about the human psyche and persuasive moves than any traditional classroom ever could. In this book, I reveal how the art of the hustle—from setting up poker games to guaranteeing wins in pool by sheer negotiation prowess—sculpted me into a sales titan. But this isn't just about my glory days on the streets. It's about translating that raw, unfiltered skill into a sales methodology so potent that today, I'm recognized as one of the nation's premier sales trainers, molding elite sales teams and advising the behemoths of the corporate world. While many said I was just a gambler, they didn't see the strategist within. My stories of perseverance, grit, and the raw energy of someone who's played against the house and walked away with the jackpot will prove to you that the world of sales isn't just about transactions; it's about strategy, audacity, and setting the stage for the win. Let's turn the tables on convention and beat the odds together.

Fear and Faith Trillia J. Newbell,2015-03-17 We will never be short on fears. Failure, rejection, sickness, losing a loved one, being alone—the fears we carry are many and heavy. Fear can be a tyrant, a bully we can't hide from. It can paralyze our spirit, damage our relationships, and hinder our faith. Trillia is no stranger to fear. She has known its harsh grip on her life, but she has also known the gentle hand of God, a peace and a faith from the One who conquers fears. In Fear and Faith, Trillia will encourage you as she reflects on Scripture and her own story. She will show you Jesus, who was tempted like you in every way. She will show you the character of God and how it inspires faith. And she will show you real women who have walked the road of fear—or are still walking it—and how they have found security in the Lord to be their strength. Whatever your fear, you are not alone, nor are you without hope. You have the One who can replace your fear with faith.

AFRICAN VALUES AND LEGACIES Dipo Toby Alakija , Results of research works reveal that any nation that fails to orientate all categories of its citizens on what the country stands for and against gives rooms for other countries to devalue the national value, violate the law and order; deforming the prevailing norms and cultures in all the communities. Most of African values, enriched with proverbs like “a goat is never pronounced innocent if the judge is a leopard” and “when brothers fight to death; a stranger inherits their father's estate”, are getting eroded with westernization. The African heritages through the transfer of cultures, norms and order from one generation to another are threatened with extinctions since the time of colonization, particularly in oil-rich African nations. The shutting down of value systems which are usually designed to boost moral values of citizens and enhance the functions of political, social and economic machineries are responsible for civil wars, terrorism, genocides and other atrocities in most African nations. This book which is designed to be studied in African Tertiary Institutions shares the results of research works into the causes of conflicts, political and economic servitude in Africa; using the analyses of quotes of some of the notable leaders and African proverbs to reinforce the value systems on the continent.

On the Internet, he simmers in a stew of imagined misdeeds--using poison gas, firebombing Dresden, causing the Bengal famine, and so on.
