A Three-Step Journey Zahid Abrol, 2016 The book contains Poetic Translations of a distinguished Urdu Poet Zahid Abrol's Nazams & Ghazals into English by a celebrated English Poet Dr. Lalit Mohan Sharma (Retd. Principal). The poems have been classified into five parts on the basis of various aspects of human life viz. The Diary of an Unemployed, Love seeketh not, Life is real ! Life is earnest, A Drenched Page and Ghazals. The poem A Three-Step Journey is about the first three steps which a child takes when he/she learns to walk. The first two steps are claimed by the parents as their own and they extend their claim over the 'third' also through their wish for fulfilment of their own dreams by the child, thus leaving nothing for the child for his own life or his own dreams. The Ghazals, the most difficult part of Urdu Poetry for the purpose of translation, have been translated with the utmost care neither compromising with the creative style of English Poetry nor allowing any apple to fall far from the tree i.e. the original text, viz. Pamper not this your melancholy It can annihilate you; A lion kept as a pet, if hungry, Can devour the master too It is our compulsions that decree And deny him assertion, for The water boiling in the vessel can Also quell the fire below About the Author: Zahid Abrol (Original Name: Vijay Kumar Abrol) a distinguished and popular Urdu Poet, having done M.Sc.(Hons) in Physics, and retired as Senior Manager of Punjab National Bank has authored a number of books in Urdu Poetry (Nazms & Ghazals). His poetic translations of Punjabi verses of a thirteenth century Sufi Poet Sheikh Farid into Urdu titled Faridnama has been acclaimed worldwide and its second edition has also been published in 2020. About the Translator: Lalit Mohan Sharma, a celebrated English Poet, author of five books of English Poetry and a large number of Research Publications has served as Principal in various Govt. Colleges of Himachal Pradesh. His creative skills have kept the spirit of English poetics alive while keeping his poetic translations very close to the original Urdu verse.

Mirza Ghalib ,2005 This book has the unique distinction of presenting, in one compendious volume, the best of Ghalib in poetry and prose. It contains 104 ghazals, seven miscellaneous poems, and a bouquet of sixty-eight selected letters, besides a few striking couplets and qitas. The ghazals and poems are first given in the original form in calligraphic Urdu. This is followed, on the opposite page, by their English translation, couched in a language that is simple, lucid and rhythmical. The ghazals and poems have also been provided with a transliterated version in the Roman script. This should enable the non-Urdu-knowing reader to have a feel and flavour of the Urdu text. In addition, the book contains a critical-cum-biographical introduction which is comprehensive, well-documented, and insightful. It is hoped that the book will receive a welcome response from the lovers of Ghalib, who was an outstanding poet fit to rank with the greatest poets of the world, and a precious part of our cultural heritage.

India in Translation, Translation in India GJV Prasad,2021-10-15 India in Translation, Translation in India seeks to explore the contours of translation of and in India-how Indian texts travel around the world in translation, how Indian texts travel across languages in the subcontinent and how texts from various languages of the world travel to India. The book poses pertinent questions like: · What influences the choice of texts and the translations, both within and outside India? · Are there different ideas of India produced through these translations? · What changes have occurred over the last two hundred odd years, from the time of colonialism and anti-colonial struggle to that of globalisation? · How does one rate the success or otherwise of a translation? · What is the role of these translations in their host languages, in their cultural and literary polysystems? The book includes eighteen essays from eminent academics and researchers who examine the numerous facets of the rich and varied translation activity. It shows how borders-both national and subnational, and generic-are created, how they are reinforced and how they are crossed. While looking at the theory, methodology and language of translation, the essays also enunciate the role of translations in political, social and cultural movements.

Handbook of Twentieth-Century Literatures of India Nalini Natarajan, 1996-09-09 India has a rich literary assemblage produced by its many different regional traditions, religious faiths, ethnic subcultures and linguistic groups. The published literature of the 20th century is a particularly interesting subject and is the focus of this book, as it represents the provocative conjuncture of the transitions of Indian modernity. This reference book surveys the major regional literatures of contemporary India in the context of the country's diversity and heterogeneity. Chapters are devoted to particular regions, and the arrangement of the work invites comparisons of literary traditions. Chapters provide extensive bibliographies of primary works, thus documenting the creative achievement of numerous contemporary Indian authors. Some chapters cite secondary works as well, and the volume concludes with a list of general works providing further information. An introductory essay overviews theoretical concerns, ideological and aesthetic considerations, developments in various genres, and the history of publishing in regional literatures. The introduction provides a context for approaching the chapters that follow, each of which is devoted to the literature of a particular region. Each chapter begins with a concise introductory section. The body of each chapter is structured according to social and historical events, literary forms, or broad descriptive or analytic trends, depending on the particular subject matter. Each chapter then closes with an extensive bibliography of primary works, thus documenting the rich literary tradition of the region. Some chapters also cite secondary sources as an aid to the reader. The final chapters of the book address special topics, such as sub-cultural literatures, or the interplay between literature and film. A list of additional sources of general information concludes the volume.

Myriad Shades of Life in Mirza Ghalib Tasleem A. War, 2021-01-28 The book is an anthology of seven critical essays on the work of Mirza Ghalib, and considers a number of issues such as comparisons between him and Muhammad Iqbal, William Shakespeare and John Donne. It also foregrounds the most distinguishing features in his poetry, including his art of dialectical poetics, the obsession with the theme of death throughout his poetry, and the representation of Karbala and Ahle-Bayt in his work. The book thus highlights the different shades of meaning in both his poetry and letters. These myriad shades are embedded in Ghalib's vision of life. Like Shakespeare and Sophocles, Ghalib details the colourfulness of life in all its horror and glory. Just as life itself is colourful in its myriad shades, Ghalib's poetry offers us a vision of life which is pluralistic, multifarious and universal at the same time.
