Recommended Practices for Safety and Health Programs The main goal of safety and health programs is to prevent workplace injuries, illnesses, and deaths, as well as the suffering and financial hardship these events can cause for workers, their families, and employers. The recommended practices use a proactive approach to managing workplace safety and health. Hazard Communication Standard: Safety Data Sheets The Hazard Communication Standard (HCS) (29 CFR 1910.1200(g)), revised in 2012, requires that the chemical manufacturer, distributor, or importer provide Safety Data Sheets (SDSs) (formerly MSDSs or Material Safety Data Sheets) for each hazardous chemical to downstream users to communicate information on these hazards. Safety and Health Topics OSHA's Safety and Health Topics pages provide regulatory and enforcement information, hazard identification and controls as well as best practices and other resources to assist employers, workers and safety and health professionals ensure safer workplaces. Lithium-ion Battery Safety Safety and Health Management System Establishing a safety and health management system (SHMS) (i.e., safety program) is an effective way of protecting workers from potential hazards associated with lithium-ion batteries. Training - Occupational Safety and Health Administration Safety Starts with Training OSHA requires employers to provide training to workers who face hazards on the job. We create training materials, distribute training grants to nonprofit organizations, and provide training through authorized education centers. Home | Occupational Safety and Health Administration Join Us on Social Media Strengthening America's workforce through stories, news and information on workplace safety and health. National Safety Stand-Down to Prevent Falls in Construction ... A Safety Stand-Down is a voluntary event for employers to talk directly to employees about safety. Any workplace can hold a stand-down by taking a break to focus on "Fall Hazards" and reinforcing the importance of "Fall Prevention". Safe + Sound Week - Occupational Safety and Health ... Safe + Sound Week is a nationwide event held each August that recognizes the successes of workplace safety and health programs and offers information and ideas on how to keep America's workers safe. Safety Management - Hazard Identification and Assessment Existing safety and health programs (lockout/tagout, confined spaces, process safety management, personal protective equipment, etc.). Input from workers, including surveys or minutes from safety and health committee meetings. Results of job hazard analyses, also known as job safety analyses. Alphabetical Listing of Topics | Occupational Safety and Health ... Restaurant Safety for Teen Workers Restrooms and Sanitation Requirements Ricin Robotics S Safe + Sound Campaign Safety
